STRETCH ARM STRONG

It seems so long ago when I first fell in love with her. I had just turned 16 and all I had was the bitter hatred churning inside. We would ride around for hours on sunday afternoon with nowhere to go and not even caring. She taught me alot about love. But I was young & fucked up alot. I still do, but she loved me & we could always work it out somehow. Now it's four years later and she's moving away & I'm not really sure what to do. She's always been there for me & now I'm gonna have to stand alone. God Damn I hate to lose.

Hi, my name is kyle. I go to Lander University. I think it really sucks. Don't get me wrong, it's better than not going to college at all but the people & scene here is shit. Lander is located in podunk Greenwood S.C. Every thursday afternoon I go home for the weekend because even though I hate my parents I hate school even more. Everyone here thinks that Nirvana or Jesus lizard is alternative. Also, for some reason they think that tie dye is cool. I have one cool friend. His name is Chris. He listens to Outspoken & such & tries to get me to sing in our crappy hardcore band that doesn't even have a bassist. It makes me sad sometimes because soon I'm gonna be a full fledged adult & unlike my friend Ross I don't think I'm gonna be able to support myself with a life of crime, even though I do think it would be fun. I'm not trying to make a point here, Just meandering along on the played out topics of growing up & hating it.

★ PRODIGY Service

If you've never heard of it, Prodigy is a computer service that you hook up to via your modem & use pretty much the same way you would a bulletin board. I really like Prodigy alot. You get to hook up to millions of people which invariable gives you access to the knowledge that those persons hold. Like if you want to find secret codes to Mortal Kombat 2 just go to the games bulletin board & talk to the guys that designed it. My favorite though is the Music board. Under the topic Modern music there is a special little subject group reffered to as SXE. A group of us which changes almost monthly from 4 to 20 sit around & bullshit about everything. Nothing is taboo. We talk about ringworm, having sex with our siblings, and favorite ramen flavors along with how awesome the new Snapease is. We've sort of got a little family going on. Hardly any of us pay the fee's cuz we steal Id's & then give them to our friends. People can get real close. I've seen people fall in love on the boards without ever meeting each other. & along with the friends I've made enemies. Prodigy is rad & want to thank all the friends I've made on the net. Carolyn Epps, Jamie, Dusty, Christine, ratboy, and even that motherfucker luke.

Straight Edge.....
what exactly is it? It seems that these days there are a lot different views about it. It has evolved in a big way since it has started. It has stemmed off into a bunch of different branches. All those other things that sXe has picked up along the way is great. It still comes down to a very positive concept, being the abstinence from all drug related sustances. It's not about a band, a shirt, a look, a sex, an X, a song, or a trend. It comes from within the heart. sXe is a way of life. If someone doesn't choose the sXe lifestyle, then that's their choice. Not being sXe, doesn't make someone a bad person, just different.

Bloodlet

Bloodlet is one of my favorite new bands. They are fuckin bad as hell and the lyrics are even backwards sometimes so they can control you subliminally. Anyway, Me & Scott did this over the phone with Matt. I think it could have turned out better but we suck. Oh, well enjoy.

SCOTT - So what do you do in the band ?

MATT - I play guitar.

SCOTT - Ya'll are playing that big show in wisconsin aren't ya'll ?

MATT-no, were not

SCOTT- Really? what happened?

MATT-We were supposed to but we can't. Our bass player had a prior commitment he had set up for like a year.

KYLE- I was just thinking, ya'll mutherfuckers are like world travelers. You mutherfuckers go everywhere.

MATT- Yeah, we try

KYLE- Do you have your own van?

MATT -Yeah, I have a van & we use it for the band.

KYLE- First off I guess is are you guys Satan worshipers or anything?Cuz you motherfuckers seem evil as hell when I read your lyrics.

MATT- Um, religious wise?, I don't really think that we're evil, thats just the way that we express negative emotions We're not satanists or anything but as far as our philosophy, If you've ever read in the Satanic Bible , it's like the least hypocritical religion. We don't follow any religion. I mean we don't believe in Satan.Some of us don't believe in a higher power of any form. Our lifestyle or philosophy of life we believe in freedom or what the Satanic Bible might suggest.

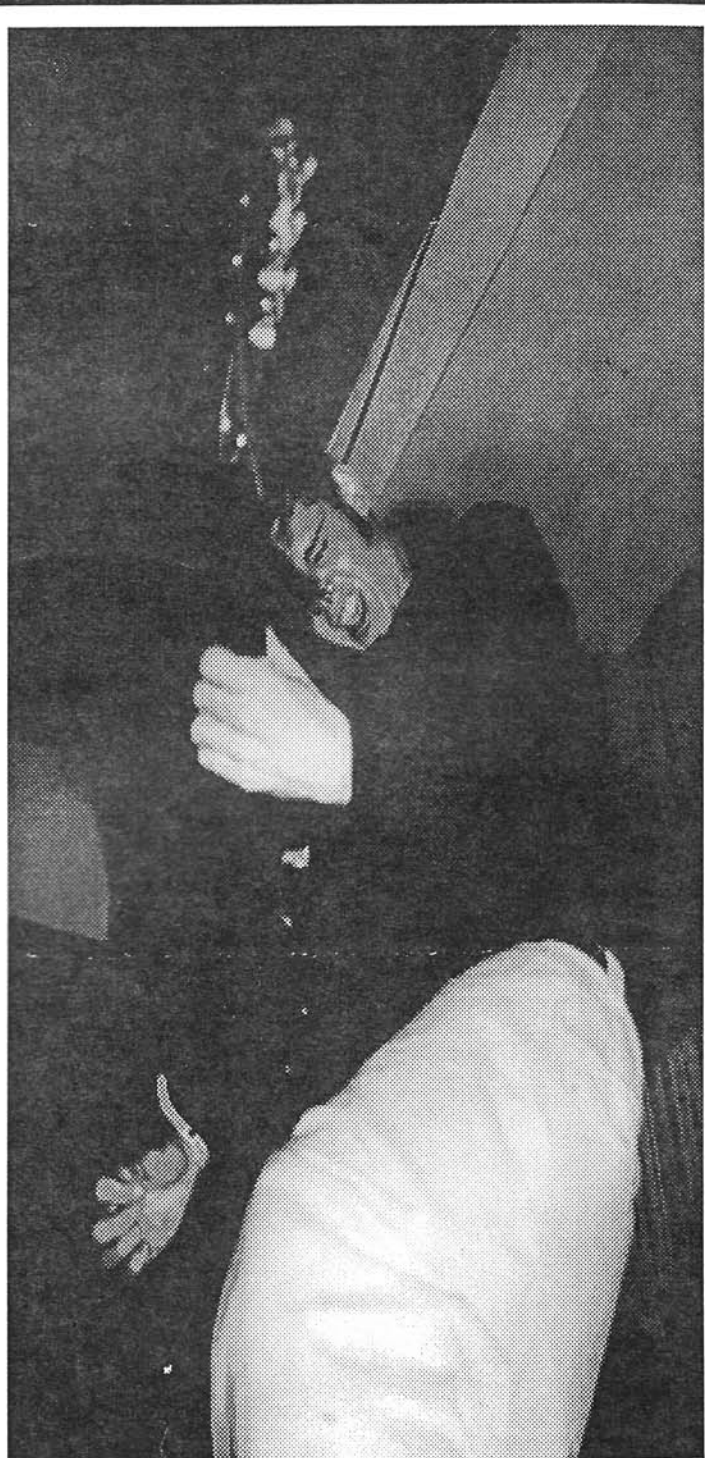

KYLE-So typically you're angry youths?

MATT-I don't know if we're still youths. Some of us are pretty old.

SCOTT- How old are you guys?

MATT-Our drummer Charlie is 17. Our bass player is 20 Our other guitarist and myself are 22 and Scott the singer is 21.

KYLE- so how old is old?

MATT- um, I dunno.

SCOTT- I'm 21 and I don't think I'm old!!

MATT- Old is a state of mind I guess. There's older people. I don't think McKie's old. he's 33.

SCOTT- That's enough of that question. ... How did ya'll get that first 7" on Smorgasboard? I pretty much thought that they were dead.

MATT- we just sent them a tape & he called us & asked us to do something.

KYLE- Are ya'll still doing another 12" or 7" or something?

MATT- Well, we were talking to a bunch of people about putting out a 12" and a cd, but we decided that we didn't have time to do that before we went on tour. Now we're putting a 7" out on STABILITY. We're putting 2 songs out on the 7" cuz our songs are like 6 or 7 minutes long, and one of the songs will be on the next 12".

KYLE- so are you planning to put out the 12" yourself?

MATT- We talked to a bunch of people. We talked to Chuck of Temperance but that kinda fell through, and then we talked for awhile with Dwid.

KYLE- Ya'll are from florida right?

MATT- yeah

KYLE- so is there like a big scene down there?

MATT- no not really.

KYLE- Do ya'll still live with your parents?

MATT- yeah, kind of.

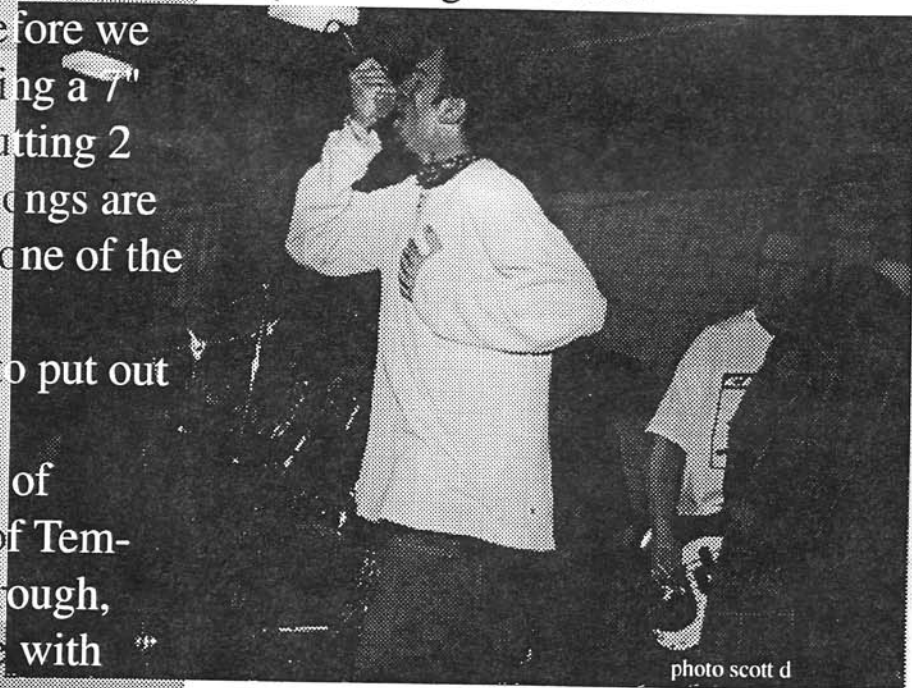

KYLE- do they get mad at you for playing your type of music? Are they behind you?

MATT- My moms pretty supportive. I live with my mom. We share half the rent.

KYLE- do you like play tapes for her and she's like "that's pretty rad".

Matt- She doesn't particularly like the music but she's supportive of it. It's not their can of worms or whatever.

KYLE- so what's your favorite Saturday morning cartoons?

MATT- I used to like Dungeons & Dragons alot. Um, I work every Saturday morning so I don't really know.

SCOTT- Do you watch T.V. alot?

MATT- no, I only get one channel.

SCOTT - well, if you could watch one

then what would you watch?

MATT- Kids in the Hall.

KYLE- Why

MATT-I enjoy it, that type of dark humor.

KYLE- So are you a dark person?

MATT-Yeah, um, I'm pessimistic,

KYLE- so would you say you are a metal band?

MATT- No, not at all

KYLE-Do lots of metal heads come to your shows?

MATT- no.

KYLE- I was sitiiing around listening to your 7" and I was wondering what would set it apart from being a metal band and make it a hardcore band.

One and Only

my guts burn you set them abloze when you pulled them out youre not even here to feed the fire so why do they still burn not much left now smoldering ashes so whats to love you think you can hide from what youve done you think i cant smell your fear from a distance of 5 years and 600 miles it burns in my nostrils as my heart burns in my throat your time has come you will get yours ill force you to bear witness to my pain that alone enough to set you insane ive held it all been conditioned to if it could be channeled into violence id eat your existence i have not the taste for the flesh of the innocent but yours father has made my mouth water

MATT-I would say the difference between hardcore bands and metal bands are there goals, what they're trying to achieve. I think that a lot of hardcore music is cutting edge metal. It's just the scene it comes from. I think that a lot of metal bands don't really have a lot of emotion behind their music, and I think that hardcore bands have a lot of emotion.

KYLE- you were saying that their goals are different, so what are your goals?

Matt-Musically, just to write good music to put out good music. We don't have plans to make music our life or to make a lot of money off music.

Kyle- but what if you could? What if the guy from THE GRIND called up & wanted you to come onto THE GRIND? Would you do it?

MATT- on what??

KYLE- THE GRIND, on MTV, It's like Dance Party USA or something.

MATT- I don't think we'd do that. no.

SCOTT- Kyle would

KYLE- I know I would

I would get on there & make some shit up. I do some stupid Henry Rollins spoken word shit.

KYLE- so, do ya'll go to raves?

SCOTT- SAY NO!

KYLE- no don't

MATT-Sometimes I go to raves but I dunno.

KYLE- but that's fuckin' bad as hell though. most people won't admit that.

MATT-Orlando is like a weird town. All the hardcore kids, when there is nothing to do will go to raves and hang out, like be stupid and make fun of people. It's pretty close knit here, all the kids know each other, there's never any fights or anything.

KYLE- Do you read details magazine?

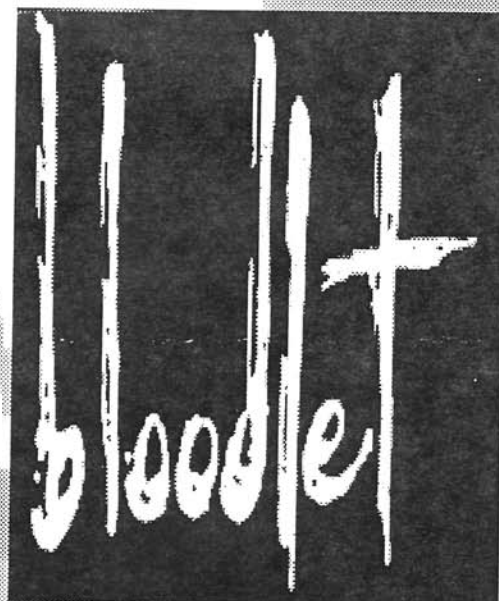

MATT- no, why

KYLE- there's this girl named ANKA and you can win a date with her. I just think that she's bad as hell.

MATT- isn't one of your friends in love with Winona Ryder?

KYLE- yeah, that's Scott. how do you feel about her?

MATT- Winona Ryder? She's a cute

Guest Writer

Hello everybody! What's shaking? If you are wondering what the funk you are reading, I'm not sure I have an answer. You can look at it from a viewpoint of a person you don't even know or you don't even like. These are just a few things as I see them.

Have you ever stopped and wondered why you did some of the things you did, or why you said what you said? Do you ever just feel like you want to put your shoe in your mouth and never open it again. I'm sure at some point we have all thought these same thoughts. It seems like everywhere you turn, someone is talking turd. "His band sucks..." or "why didn't we get that gig..." and sometimes, "they aren't even straight edge..." Believe it or not, I've heard these very words uttered out of certain people's mouths. Unbelievable, ignoramous sentences coming out of the mouths of so many people. For what reason? No reason at all except that when we don't get our way, we don't want anyone else to get their way either. Selfish pride is placed before friendship and loyalty. I just can't understand why people wanna diss when they don't get their way. It makes absolutely, completely no sense. They act like little children bitching and moaning over a toy on the playground.

Another thing I can't understand is the whole Vegan/Vegetarian deal. I'm not slagging these people, I'm just sick and tired of them slagging non Vegans and Vegetarians. If you don't eat meat or any products made from animals then fine, don't. Don't tell me about bones being crushed and used in Kool-Aid. I like Kool Aid. It tastes good and it's cheap. I don't eat meat either, but I don't go around making sure that everyone is aware of it. "There will be no compromise, no more negotiating, if you refuse to change then you're guilty and must be destroyed." These lyrics, (from a very good band), shock me as being so hypocritical. If I don't do as they do, then I must be destroyed? Well....damn. That really stinks. My mom, my dad, my two brothers and my Aunt Emily are gonna be destroyed because they like Big Mac's and steak. There is apparently no compromise, so they are gonna die. What are these guys thinking? How can anyone think that way? I think the Klan and the Nazis have the same motto. Well, maybe I'm being too hard on Earth Crisis, for those who did not know whom I was refering, but I think you get my point. Instead of screaming a Vegan Revolution, now about scream for the millions of humans who go unfed each nigh of the thousands of children who are neglected and beaten. Those are real problems that need real solutions. I don't mean to pick on any certain band and skip them out, but I can't help to feel this way.

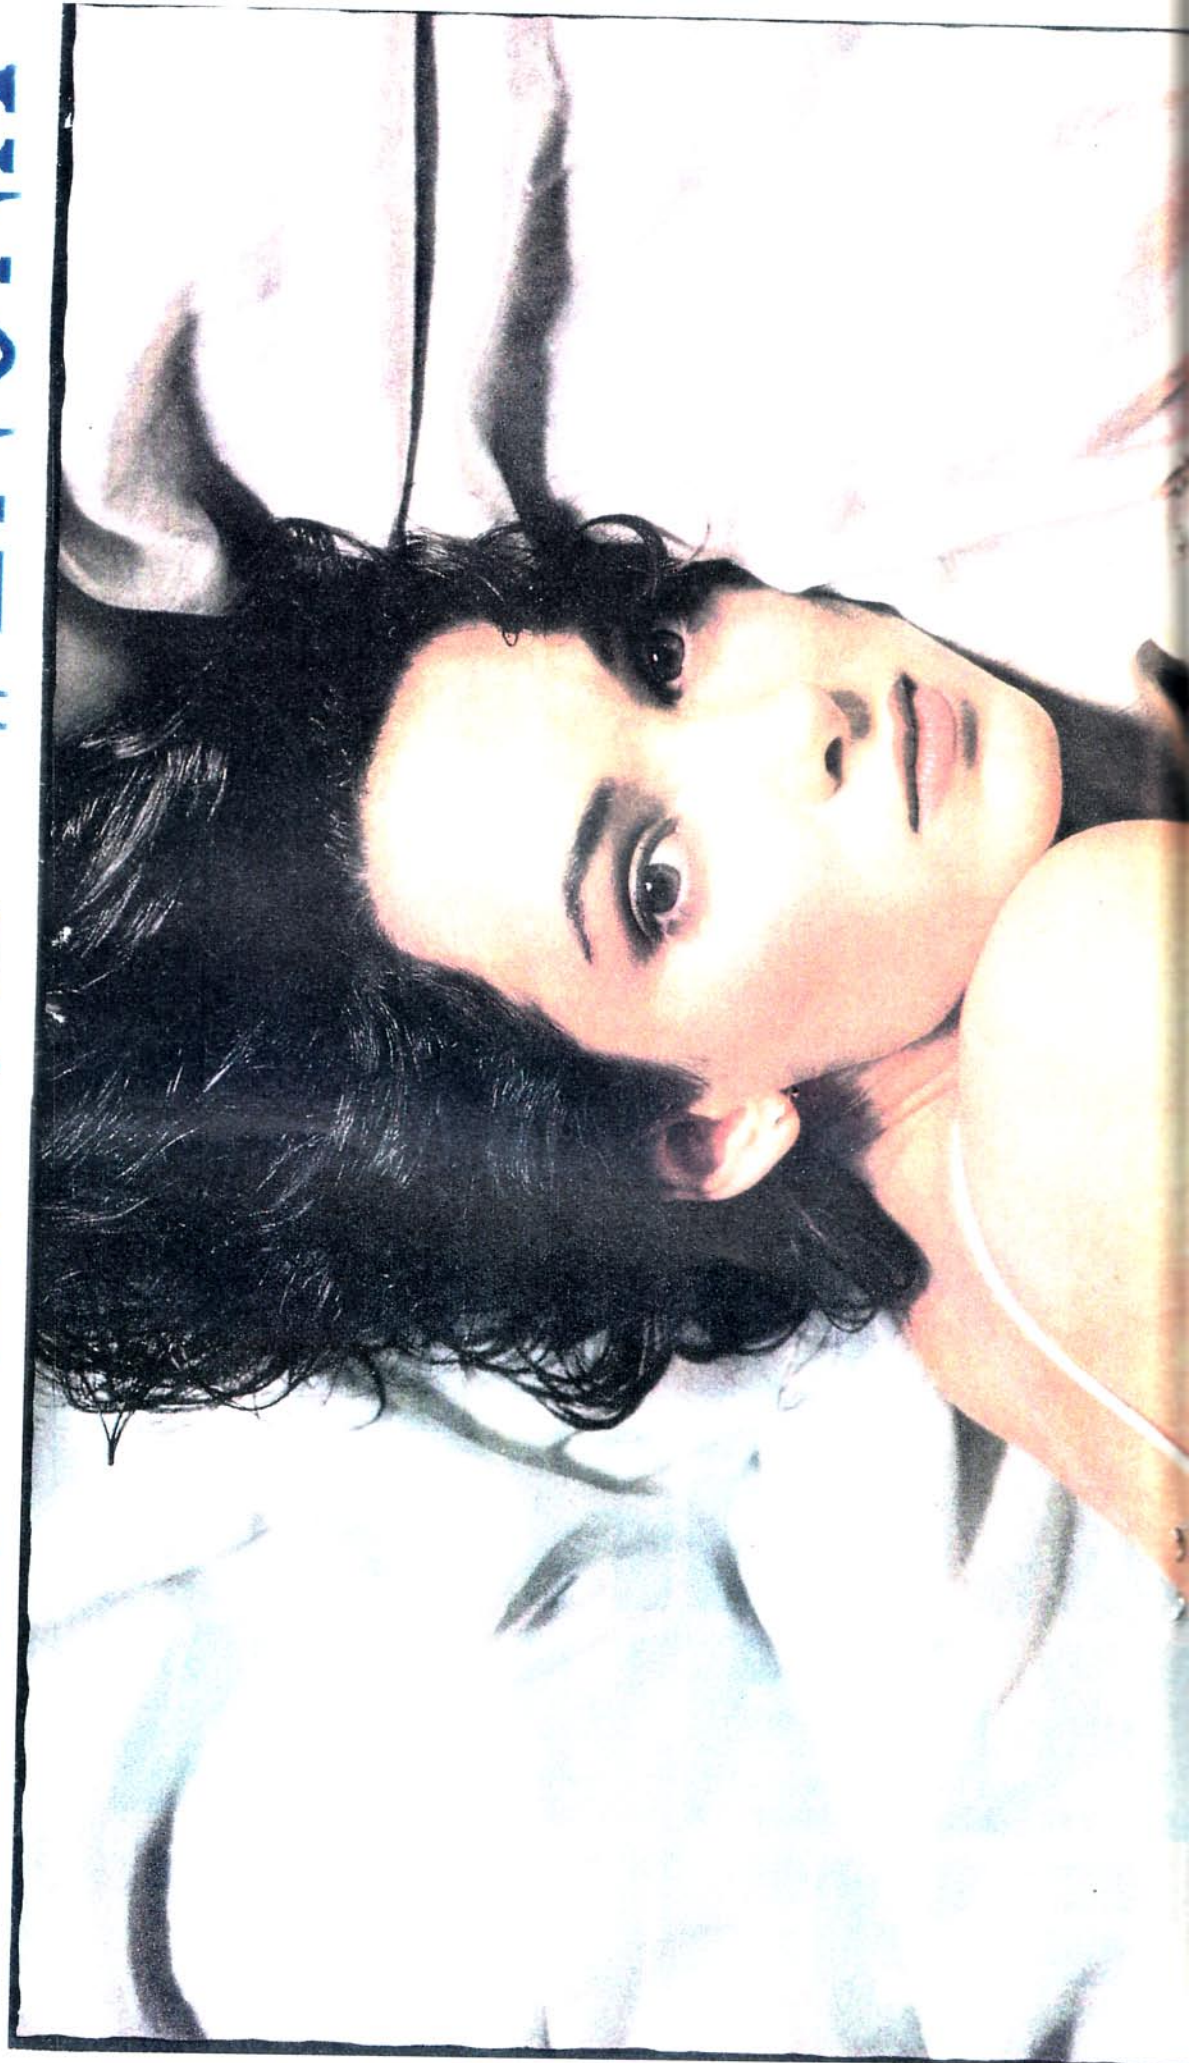

I know that no one is perfect. We all have our faults and shortcomings. The beauty of it is that we can see this and have the choice to do something about it. Whether we do or not is up to the individual.

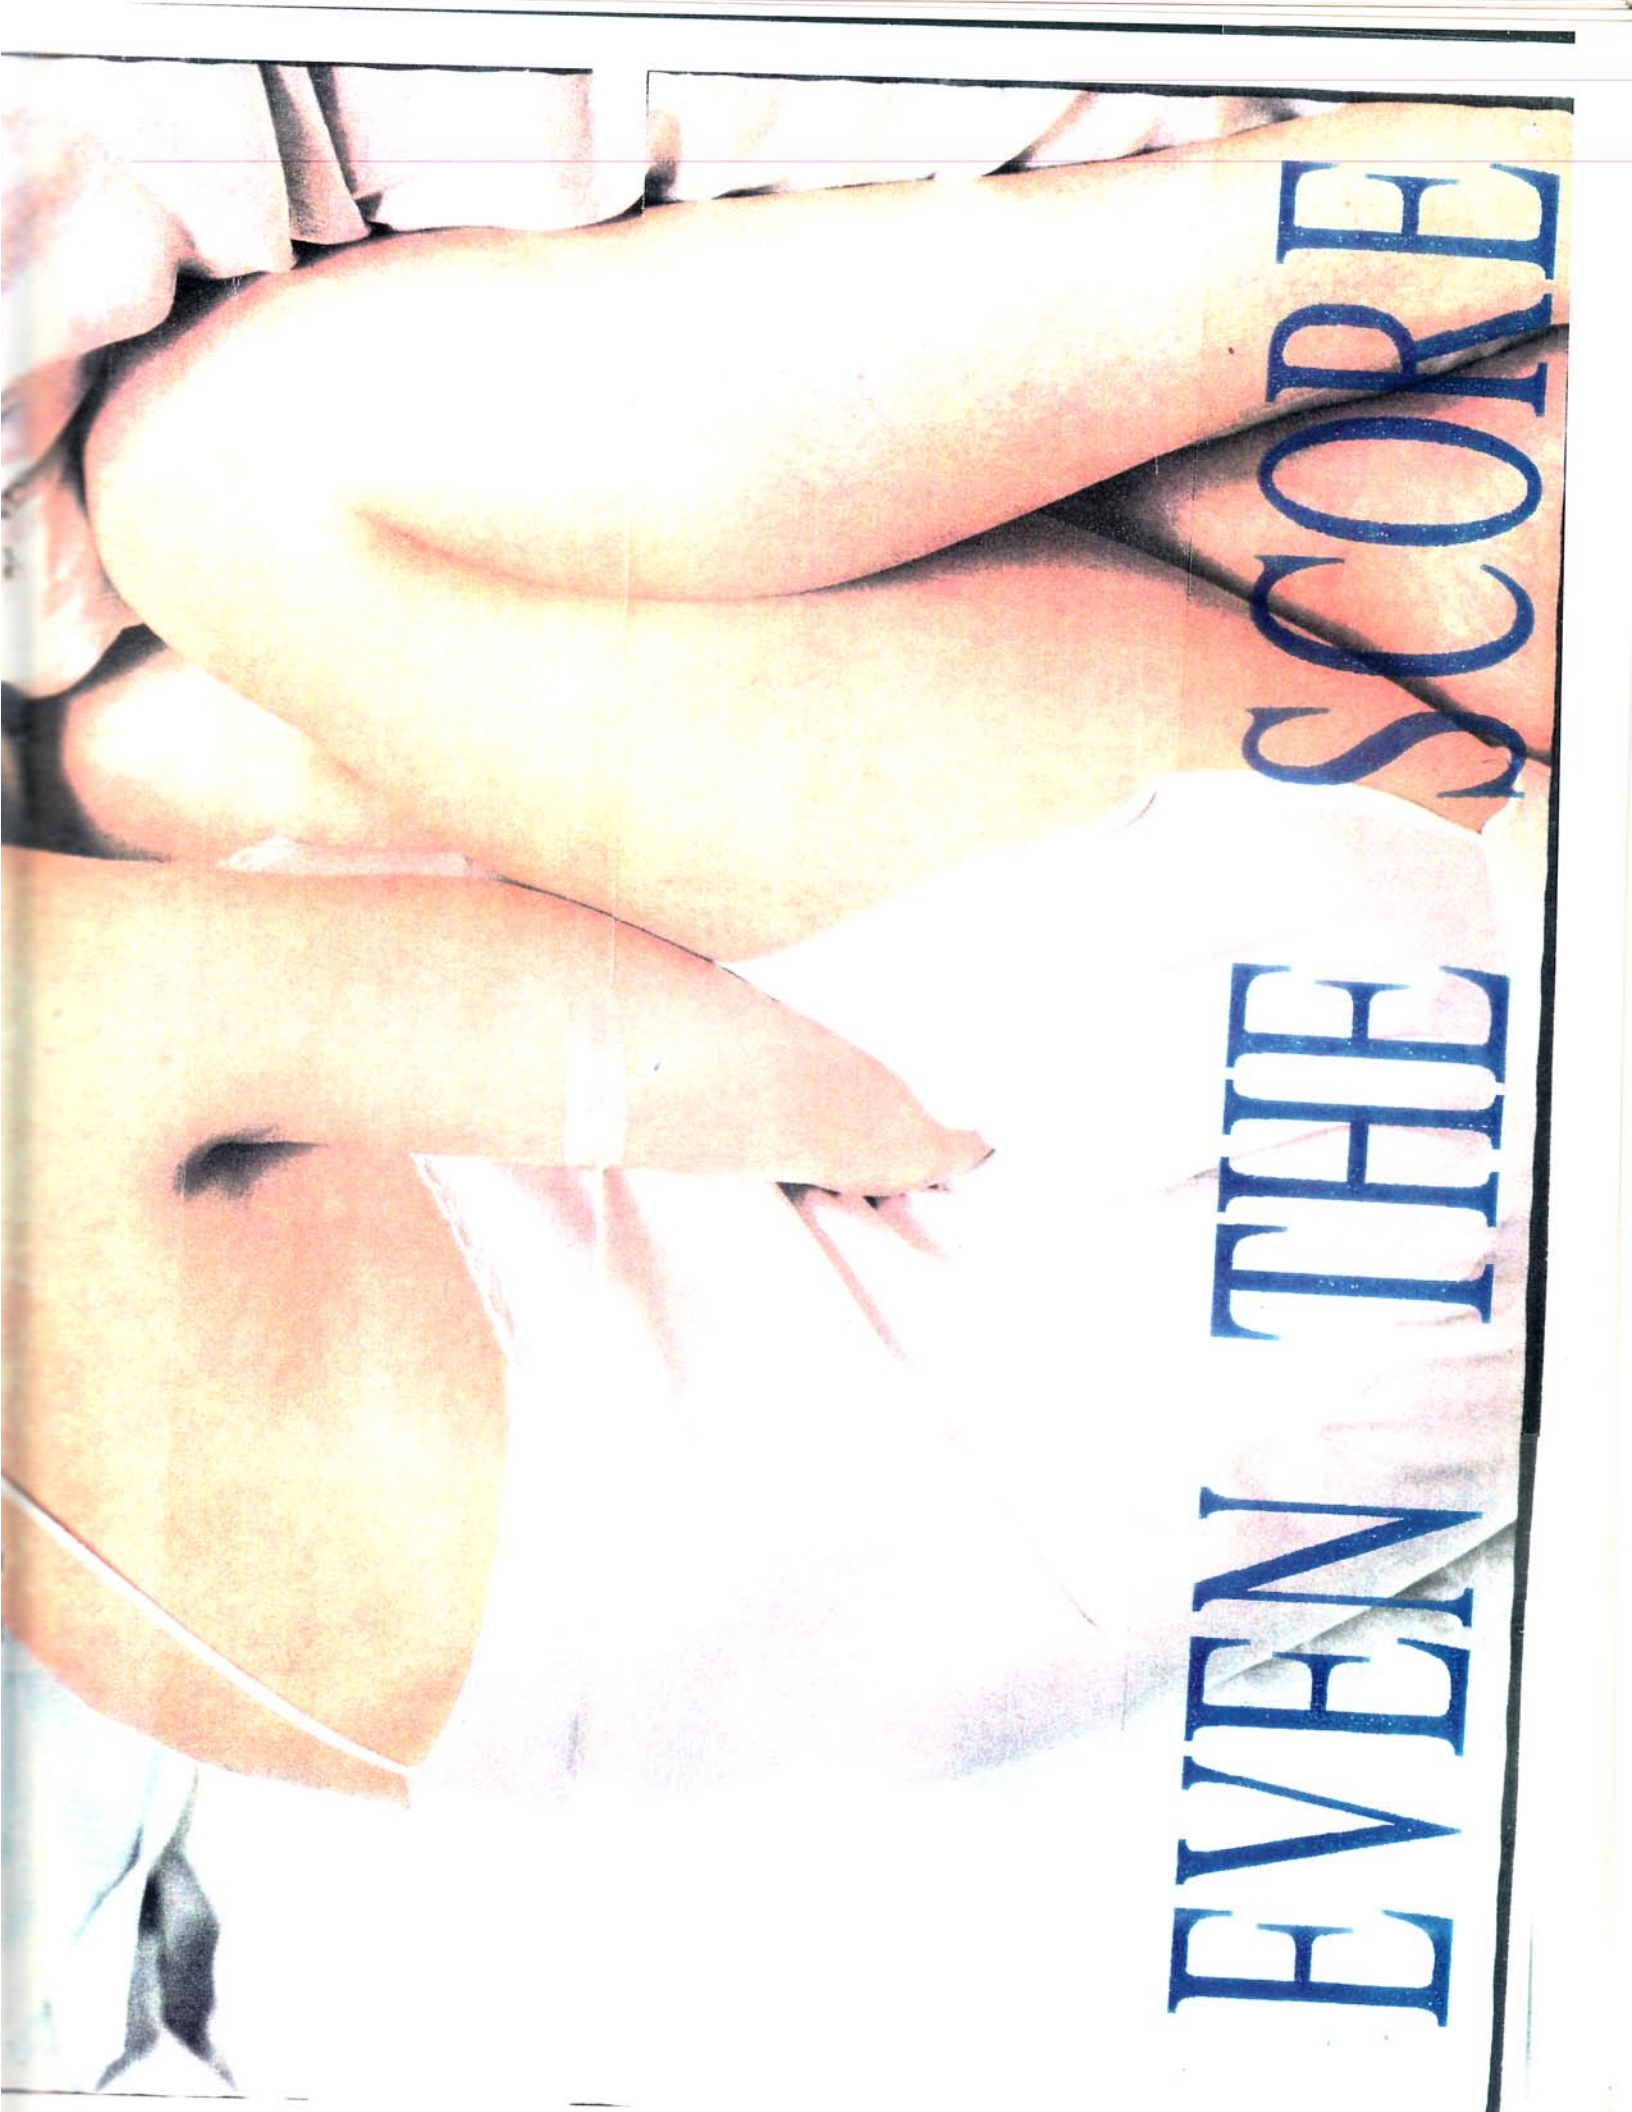

Before I leave, I'd like to get one more thing off my bosom. If you are at a show and you know the place is being rented out and certain people are responsible for it the by all means treat it with respect. If someone tells you not to write on the walls or concrete, then don't. It's not cool to vandalize. It only closes things down. If you feel you can't resist the urge to be punk and vandalize then how about use chalk or a crayon. It's much easier to clean up. Also, if the only time you are at a show is when your band is playing then something is wrong. If the only thought that pops into your head when you hear someone's name is a bad one, something is wrong. We have got to stop hating one another and learn to get along.

Well, I guess my time is up and this article is probably too long to read. Thanx to Even The Score for letting me put my thoughts onto paper and into their mag. Before you can change the world, you gotta start with yourself. When you keep yourself in check, everything else will fall into place. To the rest of the grey world, Peace Out.....J. FUELED BY MY HATE I PULL THE KNIFE FROM MY BACK AND WITH A SMALL GIGGLE , PLUNGE IT DEEP INTO YOUR FUCKING NECK.

A local Vegan Straight Edge band here in Columbia have gotten under my skin lately. I'm not dissing the band itself, I think all of them are dicks, just 3/5s of them. You tell me and I talked to Bloodlet and we wanted owner of the local club here in town. He and I decided to get the date from Jeff would be cool. So that is what I did. I had room for 3. Naturally, like anyone show. I told Brad and he understood. and he is bitchin' at me like he some said, "we should be playing the show! at you except for Brad" Of course that Well there is Brian too, I don't think it simple, he was just being a dick! There is who the fuck is he and where the enemy of his? I'm not trying to act like scene as good as it possibly can be, a few, Chris Bickel, Brad, Kyle.... I pl that Lifeline did not want to be on), station hardcore show for 2 years. I music and want our scene to be the t seen at one single show unless his band does is play guitar for Lifeline. I use betray their friends for a show. As I want to stress that. For a while I th wasn't worth it. I thought about not printing this because of these things. I don't think by me writing it and print it. All it will do is get my side of the story. They already alienate themselves from me. So if anyone thinks that these words were not mine before this page was layed out, then let the dumb shit go.. Brad, I'm sorry if you feel that your band mates were the ones in the wrong
-scott d.

This page was originally a different page that I had written about an incident that happened here in Columbia. I finally realized that I shouldn't have put this certain page in, and that it would only cause problems. The crazy thing is, it just totally astonishes me to see what kind of effect one printed page can do. Friends hating friends, people being childish and throwing things, without being man enough to step up face to face, etc. Anyway, I am stepping forward to apologize on what happened. I'm sorry to all the people that were put in the middle of this. I'm especially sorry for people who were accused of choosing sides by idiots who DIDN'T have anything to do with any part of this what so ever. I am just so sick of all these cold wars. I don't expect certain people to like me anymore, and this is not going to make me like certain people or bands anymore than I previously did. When it all went down though I saw who my true friends were. I am very sorry to a few certain people (names aren't necessary) you know who you are. I'm sorry to some, but one person crossed the line. I'm done with this non-sense.

NEW BEDFORD

IT'S TIME AGAIN FOR ANOTHER
FUN FILLED E.T.S. TOUR DIARY.
ME & SCOTT WENT IN
DIFFERANT CARS SO OUR TRIPS
WERE DIFFERANT.
ANYWAY.HERES MY STORY.

DAY 1- My friend Chris Massey had already driven to Wilmington N.C. to hook up with Greg Straight Edge. We were gonna hook up with Mark & Nicole from Conway S.C. and Gregs friend Steve & we were all gonna go up in gregs van. If you've never seen Gregs van it's a toyota van with stickers all over it & STRAIGHT EDGE real big across the front windshield, anyway, Mark & Nicole & me ,chris & steve all hopped in the van & headed up north to beautiful New Bedford. We were supposed to meet Scott & the people he rode with about 4 hrs away. When we left Wilmington it was nice outside & we were comfortable wearing t-shirts. However about 3 hrs up the road we noticed it started to get cold and it was raining real bad. Scott & his ride ended up being 2 hrs late but we finally hooked up with them.

Greg had rigged this hammock up in his van & it was hooked to a 2x4 which was wedged somehow in his roof. Anyway, I was chillin in this hammock & I noticed it was getting colder & colder so I tell greg to turn on the heat. "The Heater doesn't work" was what I heard. Hmmm. Needles to say another hour down the road the windshield iced up and with no defrost we couldn't see & we had to pull off the side of the road every three minutes to scrape off ice. It was cold as hell & we were all bitching at greg for not thinking to fix the heater. All this time I'm chilling in the hammock which happens to be above nicoles head. Now the scary shit starts happening, we're not even out of N.C. and the roads ice up. The van started sliding all over the place & we were all screaming & shit. Then we hit this big fucking patch & the van flies up on 2 wheels like the dukes of hazard & we start sliding. The fucking hammock with me in it flies out & the 2x4 comes out & hits Nicole square in the head. Anyway, we got scared & decided that we better stop , so we all pulled into this gas station to look for something to fix the ice accumulation. NO one had a portable heater & all we could get was deicer in a spray can . Scott & his ride decided that they wanted to make it to Rhode island to see earth crisis so they left while we figured out how to get back on the road. fuckers.

Well we decided that if we went 5 miles an hour and kept spraying deicer on the window then we could make it. Sure it was dumb but we're stupid people. As soon as we got on the interstate we started sliding again . This time we decided to get a hotel & sleep & try again tomorrow. When we got to the hotel it was full so we ended up sleeping in the van. It was so fucking cold. There were icicles on the inside of the roof. No fucking lie.

DAY 2- We get up about 8 am. We all have some wrestling matches in the van to stay warm. Somehow greg knocks the van out of gear & we start rolling towards a foreign man talking on the phone. When he saw this big van rolling towards him he started waving & making a fucked up noise. Greg was in the back wrestling so we couldn't stop it but we weren't going veryfast so when we hit the curb we stopped. Later on we finally got into a hotel & slept all day waiting for some of the ice to melt. Later on we got up around 6 & headed out. We stopped at Walmart to find a heater & had to beg them to let us in (they were closing at 6 due to the ice) No luck so we kept on trucking.

icer, anyway, Steve had a grandma in D.C. that we spent the night with. She was nice and made us cheese sandwiches (not for greg or nicole though, they're vegan) The next morning we left & didn't really have that much trouble because it had stopped raining. We were still really around, We ate at pizza hut and then cruised over to where the show was going on. We met this guy who said if we brought in equipment we could get in for free , so ya know , we got in free, The shit was heavy but ya know we got in free.

Once we loaded the stuff we hung

DAY-3 WE drove all the way to D.C. getting there about 1 am . By then we were all frozen solid, Greg almost had frostbite from driving with the window open so that he could spray de cold though. we finally arrived in new bedford after The girl gave us the wrong directions & we drove all the way to boston about 2 hours out of our way. We finnally decided on a DAYS INN which was expensive as hell, We were all hungry but greg wouldn't take us to get food. DAY 4-We all got up early & went driving around & talked to people & then we left to go to the mall, there was this woman there who kept on looking at us & Greg shouted real loud" Yes, we're humans too." I thought it was rude but everyone else thought it was funny. We also met some kids from Canada which was cool.

Once we got back to the concert hall they wouldn't let anyone in until 6 oclock It was cold as shit & it made me mad.

STRIFE , EARTH CRISIS, BLOODLET, and SNAPCASE played . There were a bunch of other but I couldn't name them all. Earth Crisis kinda sucked, Ben wasn't there so it just wasn't the same.

Anyway, after the show we leave & look for a new place to stay. WE were gonna stay with Scott & split the cost but the guys he was with were really big babies and started crying about how they were gonna get kicked out

me. chris & mark in the van

SNAPCASE

Me and my man scott did this thing over the phone with Daryl. I think it turned out pretty good. Anyway, these guys are rad. Check em out

E.T.S. - So, the general shit first, who's in the band?

Daryl- The band is Jon Salemi on guitar, Scott Dressler on guitar, myself on vocals, Tim Redmond on drums.

E.T.S. -Is that the guy from Slugfest?

Daryl - Yeah.

E.T.S. How did ya'll hook up with him?

Daryl- I dunno , we've just all been friends since the time we went to high school, really he's a couple years younger than me. We just liked his drumming & we liked his attitude.

E.T.S.- You used to play bass didn't you?
what was up with the lineup change?

Daryl- It really didn't have to do with the sound it was really more about attitudes. Me & Scott wanted to take the band more seriously and accomplish more , we couldn't cuz our singer just wanted to fuck around. Me & Scott felt like we were wasting our time because he wasn't taking anything seriously.

E.T.S. - I think it was a good change

Daryl- we knew we needed to make a musical change too. We thought we could do better. Our old drummer Mike , we went on tour last summer , & we just didn't get along

E.T.S. - I heard ya'll were touring with Sick Of It All this summer, Wassup with that?

Daryl- Yeah, we leave tuesday,
We have 64 shows in Europe...

E.T.S- Ohh wait, I heard ya'll were going to do shows with Smashing Pumpkins !

Daryl- Well, it's really with Sick of it all but we're playing some festivals and one festival is with Smashing Pumpkins. We're playing one with Helmet and we're playing one with prong.

E.T.S. U.S. Tour ?

Daryl - Yeah when we get back from Europe on july 25 & on the 29 th we're heading back out

E.T.S- Do
ya'll play hockey?

Daryl-
John
played ice hockey
when he was younger.
Our old drummer mike was like a hockey goalie. I myself never played hockey. You pretty much up here grow up with 50% of your friends being hockey players.

The Chokehold guys are'nt far from us & we always want to play them in football or something but they always want to play us in hockey. You don't really want to play Canadians in hockey.

E.T. S. - Yeah I know they're all big & wooly! I wouldn't want to play chokehold.

E.T.S. What did ya get your mom for mothers day?

Daryl- I got her a card & I put a little picture of myself and her in there from a long time ago.

E.T.S.- That's sweet.

Daryl- Yeah, She got all sentimental on me & started crying

E.T.S.- Are ya'll a straight edge band?

Daryl- yeah, Everybody in the band is straight edge, we don't really focus on advertising ourselves as a straight edge band.

E.T.S. -You were saying something to E.T.S.- When do you plan on doing a new release?

Daryl-We're recording in september for an ep , 4 or 5 songs and maybe put a live song on there, Hopefully a live european 7".

E.T.S- Tony must have alot of money

Daryl - Well actually I think he's pretty broke right now . he spent alot of money for our plane tickets. And Strife spen t alot of money in the studio.

E.T.S. - what would be your favorite porn movie ever?

Daryl- I would have to say
NIGHT
TRIPS. 1
or 2.
E.T.S.- I liked
part 2.

Daryl-
You
FRAT
GIRLS ?

the effect that you had been offered a deal to do something on equal vision.
Are you into all that Krishna stuff?

Daryl- Our bass player & our guitar player both are interested, um they , I guess they're looking for spiritual guidance.

E.T.S. are you gonna do the record on Equal Vision?

Daryl- We're really happy with Victory
We've got a contract to do more things with Victory.

E.T.S. - Yeah, did you ever see it.

Daryl- no,

E.T.S. - It was pretty good., Would you ever be in a porn movie?

Daryl- um, probably not.

E.T.S. - Why not?

Daryl- Why not? You'd be a star, like Randy west.

E.T.S. - like Ron Jeremy or um , no

It's Peter North!

Daryl- yeah, it's Peter North.

Peter North is my hero. ... I wouldn't ever be in a porn because, you really wouldn't be competing with the other stars but you kinda want to be the best you can be & it would be hard being next to Peter North. Cuz he's got all the goods.

ETS- How do you feel about scamming on girls?

Daryl- Is this interview out to give me a bad name in hardcore or something?

ETS- No. It's just that, everyone is always like, You know. Everyone has this puritanical attitude.

Daryl- Well, I'm a first class girl watcher. Always have been I guess, but theres nothing wrong with that.

ETS- I'm not going to lie to you. I like girls!

Daryl- I don't know about scamming. I don't really like to bullshit but I like to look for sure.

ETS- I mean there are these people here & they put up this big front but if you really know them they are really rude to girls.

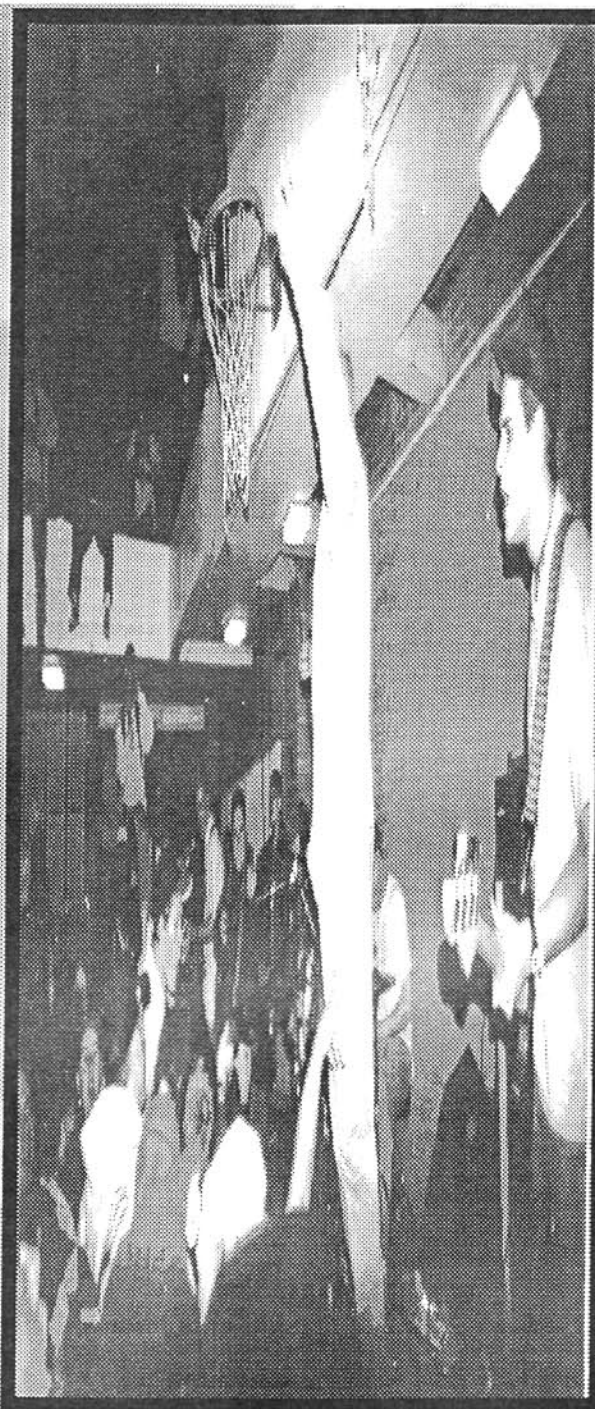

Daryl- Any guy that tries to say he doesn't like to look at girls is full of bullshit!

Girls are just the same way. Whenever they are with their friends they've always got something to say about every guy that goes by. Who are they kidding?

ETS- So if you were a rapper what would your name be? What about if you were a porn star?

Daryl- If I were a rapper my name would be G.Q. smooov.

ETS- Do you ever use that?

Do you tag alot?

Daryl- No, I'm not a tagger. But I definately like that name. G.Q. Smoov.

If I were a porn star, I dunno. Dirk Blastoff or something. (to roommate) hey! what would be a good porn name? ... He said Clint Steel.

E.T.S.- I don't get it.

E.T.S.- Do you rave often?

Daryl- No

E.T.S.- Why NOT! (kyle) Thank God! (scott)

Daryl- I've been to raves before. Buffalo really isn't much of a rave place I guess. It's a working class town ya know.

E.T.S.- Do ya'll write Vegan Power on your arms?

Daryl- No

E.T.S.- There are a bunch of vegan kids around here that(kyle). They're tendwagons. They don't give a shit. (scott) They put Vegan power on their cars. We're gonna take Vegan Power off & replace it with Trend Power.

Daryl- What does vegan power mean? Does it mean like they're powerful people?

E.T.S.- It's like Black Power except they're vegan

Daryl- Does it mean like your better than anyone else. Like an elitist club or something?

E.T.S.- yeah, they think it's cool but they don't know who really runs the show around here. E.T.S. Do yall beat up people on a regular basis?

Daryl- How regular?

E.T.S. - Ahh ya know weekly. (scott) You guys wear overalls. (Kyle) Overalls are like old school rave gear Are you sure you don't rave

Daryl- No, Tim our drummer is the one who wears overalls. he's just a farm boy.

E.T.S.- Do ya'll wrestle pigs.

Daryl- Is it vegan to wrestle pigs.

E.T.S.- I dunno I've never done it before but I'm not vegan so I have the option to if I want. (scott) you're not eating them you're just playing with them. (kyle) Yeah, they'd probably like it.

Daryl- You think so?

E.T.S.- I dunno I never asked one.... Have you ever had cows chase you?

Daryl- no

E.T.S. One time I had a herd of cows almost ran over me & my friend & had to run & climb up a tree & was stuck up there for like an hour. Those mother fuckers are dangerous. Ya gotta watch out. (scott) Are there farms in Buffalo?

Daryl- oh yeah.

E.T.S.- anyone you wanna talk shit about?

Daryl- You guys are real trouble makers. Trying to get me to talk shit. You're gonna have the P.C. people after me.

E.T.S.- We don't need those motherfuckers.

At first I thought you were true. I had no idea you were such a fake. You wear the outfit, live the lifestyle, and preach all the right things. I thought you were true but lately I've been hearing some real interesting facts about you. I thought you were true and it makes me sick to think that people look up to you and only a few know what really lies inside. I thought you were true but you are nothing but a hypocrite who takes advantage and disrespects the people who think you are what you aren't. At first I thought you were true but now that everything is all neatly laid out for me, I can clearly witness the TRUTH

This was originally aimed in one direction but names are not important. What is important is that if anyone reads this and it hits home, maybe you should stop & think about a few things. -scott d.

THERE'S AN ADIDAS FACTORY OUTLET IN SPARTANBURG S.C. ABOUT AN HOUR AWAY FROM WHERE WE LIVE I DROVE THERE ONE DAY & THEY HAD SO MUCH PHAT SHIT. THE ONLY PROBLEM WAS THAT NONE OF IT WAS X-LARGE. DAMN.

Trapped

It is as if now I am helplessly straggling through a dark gloomy cave where at the end I can see the warm, beautiful sunlight spilling through. I strive with my hardest might to reach this bright warmth at the end of this horrible cave. Along the way I am relieved to find a candle. It provides me with light for a brief time but eventually it will burn out. The candle's light was just an insignificant and fake interpretation of the true light that still lies ahead. It seems that the closer I get to reaching this pure sunlight, the further away and the harder my journey gets. Sometimes I have dreams of catching a ray of this radiant sunlight. When I've almost abandoned all hope, this dream makes me realize how warm and exquisite the true sunlight really is. I don't know if I will ever make it out of this dark coldness, but until I close my eyes to where I can't see the blazing light shining through at the end of this cave, I will have to keep trying.....

If you love someone don't let them go. I really may have made the biggest mistake of my life when I did that. Now she's gone and it seems that no matter how hard I try, I can't get her back.

.....late winter months 1993

I have finally figured out that I must not dwell in the past. My chin must rise and my eyes must open. The past was great and I will always have a place for memories but I must look to the future and live in the present, for who knows what it may hold.

.....1994 a year for change

Money is everything. Our country claims to be "the land of the free". Yes we do have it better than a lot of other places, but are we SO free. We are not and will never be free. Think about it. We have to pay to live on land that is supposed to be ours. What ever happened to "this land is our land". Yea right, that's why I have to pay a large sum of money each month in rent. We have to pay for different types of insurance. There's car insurance which is outrageous for young people. There's health and life insurance which is a must. We have to pay to eat. If I were a Vegan I would be broke. These health food stores are outrageously expensive. You being like me know exactly what I'm talking about. Society expects us to go to school, get a job and become independent. Why are schools and colleges so expensive? All I hear is how the youth of this generation are all lazy drop outs and shit like that. Did they ever stop to think that not everyone has parents who pay for everything. For those of us who aren't so lucky and want an education, we have to find a way to pay for school. It may be through loans or grants or even scholarships. Then in order to live we have to have a job that will work around our classes (not to many) and pays more than minimum wage so that we can afford to eat and pay our rent each month. During all this it is almost impossible for us to study, but somehow we manage to get by. And we are lazy, if on Saturdays we sleep till 1 in the afternoon. Well pardon me, it's the only time in the week I get a good nights sleep. There is no time for improvement because we are constantly struggling to make ends meet but somehow we seem to get by. And you wonder why there are so many young people out there stealing and stuff. Maybe because society has made it so hard for a young adult to get by in this country. What I'm trying to say is that money controls everything. I know there will always be money and ownership and things like that, there is no way to get around it. With money we will never be truly free.
